Description

As a specialist for flight distribution InteRES understands the strategic and commercial considerations of all players in the air distribution value chain and guides clients into the NDC and ONE Order retailing world. Our international customers – world leading tour operators, major travel agency chains and world-class airlines – profit from trend-setting IT solutions: With the Mercado Server, clients can source with a single request the best airfares from multiple sources: GDS, NDC API and direct connects. Using our Mercado Agent travel agents can search and book flights across these different content sources in one clean graphical display. Plus, optimizing mark-up and margins is easy with the Mercado Mark-up & Rules Engine. Airlines benefit from the Airline Retail Engine, an integrated offer and order management system that is built from scratch to take full advantage of NDC and ONE Order, IATA's new retailing procedures.
